ABOUT NCEDSV

The Nevada Coalition to End Domestic and Sexual Violence was founded in 1980 by the then five existing domestic violence programs in Nevada to serve as the statewide voice on behalf of local services and survivors. Since then, we have played an active role in policy change, providing training and technical assistance, and educating allied professionals and the general public about domestic and sexual violence.

NCEDSV continuously administers more than one million dollars in assistance to fund shelters, hotlines, and support services. Last year alone we conducted 25 trainings providing high-quality education to 624 individuals allowing them to enhance their knowledge and skills in the field. In addition to in-person trainings, around 45,665 brochures, victim information cards, and handbooks were distributed; 35 site visits and 79 consultations were conducted throughout Nevada to support communities in effectively responding to domestic and sexual violence.

In the past 39 years, the Coalition has changed the way Nevada thinks and acts about domestic and sexual violence. Your generous donations will directly support this statewide movement to prevent and eliminate domestic and sexual violence in our communities. The funds will ensure that we can continue to provide high-quality education, training, and assistance to advocates, survivors, and allied professionals. Our goal is to continue to honor the strength, bravery, and tenacity of survivors and make sure real resources are available.

TESTIMONIALS FROM 2018 CONFERENCE

"Really enjoyed speaker's input and way connected with the participants. I am glad to hear about work being done on prevention; but it is very evident how much more work needs to be done."

"I was really happy with all of the presentation information and while it does not deal directly with my agency or program I think that it will be a huge benefit overall. I learned a lot of great information, and I feel like my insight has been improved as well."

"LOVED engaging in a mindfulness meditation during this workshop. Great addition to the conference overall. I think every conference could use this in the middle of every day. I'm excited to see what this UNR team does in the future."

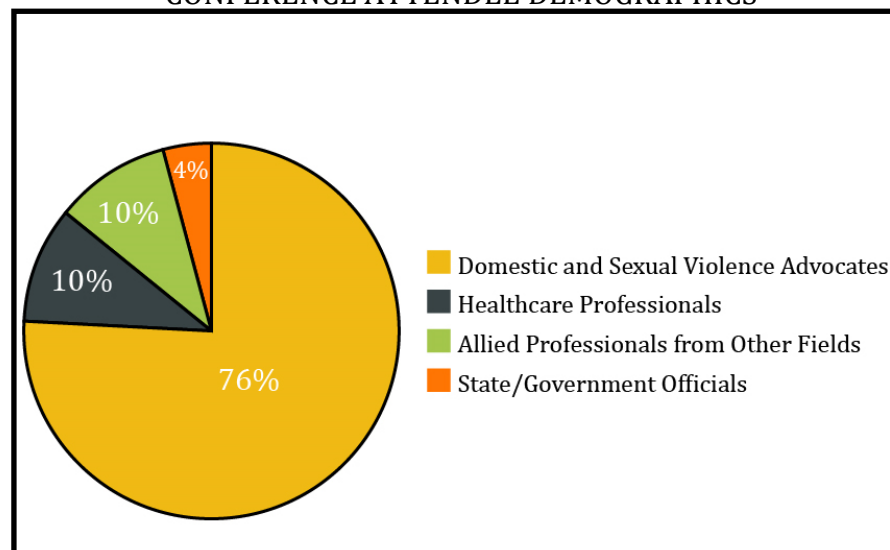

Sponsoring the 2019 NCEDSV Annual Conference will allow you to contribute to ending domestic and sexual violence in Nevada and gain widespread publicity for your organization.

Please complete the enclosed sponsorship form by May 31, 2019. For questions, contact Sara Conrad at 775.828.1115 ext. 15 or at conf@ncedsv.org with any questions.

ABOUT THE EVENT

The Annual Conference is a three-day, statewide conference where advocates, survivors, and allied professionals gather to discuss challenges faced in today's society pertaining to domestic and sexual violence prevention and intervention. Over three days, attendees expand their knowledge and develop new strategies to implement in their communities. Attendees include those working directly in the field and those from outside organizations interested in learning more. This allows sponsors to have a wide publicity reach.

CONFERENCE ATTENDEE DEMOGRAPHICS

The theme for the 2019 Annual Conference is Courageous Conversations: An Empowerment Approach. NCEDSV is excited to bring advocates, allies, survivors and all Nevadans together to discuss how we empower cultural change. The Event is being held at The Circus Circus, Reno, Nevada on September 23-25, 2019.
